

Carly Buxton, PhD

Author | Researcher | Storyteller

Flagship Residency: The Authenticity Gap

In this research-backed workshop, participants learn how to:

- Build trust in digital and AI-mediated communication
- Diagnose and remedy “AI-speak”
- Revise messages with an authentic voice
- Use AI productively without eroding credibility

Residency Format: 2-3 days, Choose 2 sessions or 2 sessions plus open office hour add-on.
Available virtual or in-person, scheduled across 1–2 days.

Other Offerings

- Book talk/keynote
- Custom workshops
- 1:1 Coaching

About Carly Buxton

A. Carly Buxton, PhD, is an author, researcher, and storyteller who helps people communicate with human presence in an AI-mediated world. Her latest book Magnetic Communication offers a research-backed approach to audience-centered, trust-building professional communication. She is based in Richmond, Virginia and teaches in the Marketing Department at the University of Richmond.

Booking & Inquiries:

carlybuxton.com

annecarlton@gmail.com

